

TOWER BRIDGE

Semaphore signal challenge!

Person A

Before radio, semaphore used to be one of the only ways ships could communicate with each other – and we used it here at Tower Bridge!

Have a go at sending this word to your partner.
Can they understand what you're saying?

TIP: Don't forget that the pictures below are what your partner should see, so the letters will look backwards to you!

Can you send any other messages?
